

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. ANDERSON, CHRISTOPHER. Annals of the English Bible, from 1524 to 1844. Portrait of Tyndale, and facsimiles of the early New Testaments. 1845, 2 vols. 8vo. 1l. 4s.

ANDREWS, BISHOP L. Preces Privatæ Quotidianæ Græce et Latine. 1848, fcap. 8vo. 6s.

Of the writings of Bishop Andrews, the most known and the most useful is his "Manual of Devotions," composed in Greek and Latin, for his own private use. For some time before his death the manuscript was scarcely ever out of his hands. It was found worn in pieces by his fingers, and wet with his tears. A late editor of these Devotions thus concludes his advertisement to the reader: "When thou hast bought the book, enter into thy closet and shut the door, pray with Bishop Andrews for one week, and he will be thy companion for the residue of thy years; he will be pleasant in thy life, and at the hour of death he will not forsake thee."—Walton's Lives by Zouch, 4to. pp. 53.

— Another Edition. 1828, 16mo. portrait, 5s.

— Private Devotions, with the Manual for the Sick. Translated by PETER HALL. 1839, fcap. 8vo. portrait, 8s. 6d.

ANGLING. See ANDERDON, BERNERS, BOOSEY, PHILLIPS, WALTON.
ANSON, T. Affghanistan, a Poem. 1852, fcap. 8vo. (pub. 4s.) 3s.

ANTHEMS. The Book of Anthems for the use of the Temple Church, London. 1835, fcap. 8vo. 6s.

ARETÆUS. Of the Causes and Signs of Acute and Chronic Disease. Translated from the Greek by T. F. REYNOLDS. 1837, 8vo. 6s. 6d.

ARIOSTO ED BOJARDO. Orlando Innamorato ed Orlando Furioso, with an Essay on the Romantic Poetry of the Italians. Memoirs and Notes by ANTONIO PANIZZI, 1830, 9 vols. crown 8vo. (pub. 5l. 8s.), 2l. 10s.

"The publication of Bojardo is a most valuable present to the Italian reading public in this country. The essay prefixed on the romantic poetry of the Italians is pregnant with the most useful information, and will aid the reader to discover new beauties in the poet, clear up obscurities, and increase the attraction of a work which has never been surpassed in its class in any age or nation."—New Monthly Magazine.

ARIOSTO ED BOJARDO. Bibliographical Notices of some Early Editions of the Orlando Innamorata and Furioso. By A. PANIZZI. 1831, crown 8vo. portrait on India paper, only 24 copies printed separate from Ariosto for private distribution, 14s.

ARISTOPHANES. Translated by J. HOOKHAM FRERE. A metrical version of the Acharnians, the Knights, and the Birds, in the last of which a vein of peculiar humour and character is for the first time detected and developed. 1840, 4to. sewed, 2l. 8s.

ARITHMETICIAN, The Concise; or, Accountant's Manual. Exhibiting the Shortest Method of Calculating Interest, Time, and the more General Rules of Arithmetic, with methods of proof. 1829, 16mo. sheep, as published, 5s.

ART TREASURES IN LAMBETH LIBRARY. See KERSHAW.

ATHERSTONE, E. Fall of Nineveh, a Poem. 1847, 2 vols. 12mo. 12s.

AYALA, DON IGNACIO LOPEZ DE. See BELL, J.

A. The Morality of Tractarianism: a Letter from one of the People to one of the Clergy. Second Edition. 1850, 8vo. sewed, 2s. 6d.

B., E. H. Poems and Songs. 1848, crown 8vo. (title damaged), 2s. 6d.

BACON, FRANCIS, LORD. Works, English and Latin, with Life, Notes, and Translations of the Latin Pieces. By BASIL MONTAGU. 1825-34, 16 vols. in 17, plates, 8vo. 7l. 7s.

A very clean original copy, not having been made up, as is frequently the case, the work having been published in separate volumes.

This edition was collated with all the early editions, and the translations, as well as the originals of the Latin pieces, are for the first time given; it also contains a life of the Author.

— Proficiency and Advancement of Learning, Divine and Human. 1825, crown 8vo. 8s. 6d.

Corrected and reprinted from the first^{*} edition of 1605, with the additions of an Analysis of the whole work, table of contents, and copious index.

BACON, FRANCIS, LORD. Another Edition, with Preface and Index. Edited by BASIL MONTAGU. 1851, fcap. 8vo. 6s.

— Essays and Wisdom of the Ancients. Edited by BASIL MONTAGU. 1836, 12mo. 6s.

— Novum Organum, in English. Translated by BASIL MONTAGU. 1844, 12mo. 6s.

BAGSTER, S. The Management of Bees, with a Description of the Ladies' Safety Hive. 1834, 16mo. frontispiece, and forty illustrations on wood, 5s.

BAILEY, J. E. The Life of Thomas Fuller. See FULLER.

BAILEY, P. J. Festus, a Poem. First Edition. 1839, 8vo. 1l. 8s.

This edition was suppressed by the Author, and subsequent editions were very considerably altered, some of the passages having been attacked as heterodox.

— Festus. Second Edition. 1845, 12mo. 6s. 6d.

— Festus. Third Edition. 1848, 12mo. 6s. 6d.

— Festus. Third Edition. 1848, royal 8vo. sewed, 5s.

"I can scarcely trust myself to say how much I admire it, for fear of falling into extravagance."—ALFRED TENNYSON.

— The Angel World. 1850, 12mo. frontispiece, 6s.

BALL, F. J. S. Augustine upon Fasting Communion. 1875, 8vo. 6d.

— Our Fears and our Confidence. A Sermon at S. Lawrence's, Reading, June 26th, 1877. 8vo. sewed, 6d.

BALLADS. The Early Ballad Poetry of England and Scotland. Edited by R. J. KING. 1842, 12mo. 6s.

A pretty volume of old ballads, handsomely printed with ornamental head and tail pieces.

BARLEE, E. Explanatory Version of the Minor Prophets, with the Text. 1839, 12mo. 4s.

BARTER, W. G. T. Poems, original and translated, including the First Iliad of Homer. 1850, fcap. 8vo. 3s. 6d.

BATEMAN, J. The Acre-ocracy of England; Owners of 3,000 Acres culled from the Domesday Book. 1876, crown 8vo. 6s.

BAXTER, RICHARD. Poetical Fragments. 1821, 16mo. portrait, 4s. 6d.

One of the earliest of W. Pickering's publications.

- BAYNE, EMILY. Sighs of Hope. (Verse.) 1870, 12mo. 3s.
- BEATTIE, JAMES. Poetical Works. With a Memoir by the Rev. ALEX. DYCE. Aldine Edition. 1831, 12mo. portrait after Sir J. Reynolds, 5s.
- Contains all the pieces rejected by the Author from the later editions of his Poems.
- BECKINGTON, BP. THOMAS. Journal during the Embassy to Negotiate a Marriage between Henry VI. and a Daughter of the Count Armagnac, A.D. 1442. Edited by Sir N. H. NICOLAS. 1828, 8vo. (pub. 10s. 6d.) 6s. 6d.
- It has been generally remarked that materials for a history of the reign of Henry VI. are extremely scanty, which renders this journal the more valuable, as it contains several of that Monarch's letters, and throws considerable light on an event of importance in the history both of this country and of France.
- BEDDOES, THOMAS LOVELL. Poems, Posthumous and Collected (containing Death's Jest Book), with Memoir, &c. 1851, 2 vols. 12mo.
- Death's Jest Book, or the Fool's Tragedy. 1850, 12mo. 9s.
- Poems, complete (excepting Death's Jest Book). 1851, 12mo.
- BEECHER, HENRY WARD. Sermon Preached at Plymouth Church, Brooklyn, New York, Dec. 1863. 1864, 8vo. privately printed, sewed, 2s. 6d.
- BELANEY, R. Mr. Gladstone Himself Reviewed and Analysed. 1876, crown 8vo. sewed, 2s.
- BELL, C. Bridgewater Treatise—The Hand; its Mechanism and Vital Endowments, as evincing Design. 1834, 8vo. (pub. 10s. 6d.) 7s.

BLAKE, WILLIAM. Poems: comprising Songs of Innocence and of Experience, together with Poetical Sketches and some Copyright Poems not in any other Edition. 1874, 12mo. 2s. 6d.

"The songs only require to be known to be loved with a tenderness and enthusiasm which it is not given to many poets to arouse."—The Saturday Review.

"The admirers of W. Blake as a poet—and they are rapidly increasing in number—owe much to Mr. Pickering for this reprint."—Notes and Queries.

— Songs of Innocence and of Experience, showing the Two Contrary States of the Human Soul. 1839, crown 8vo. 9s.

BLAKE, WILLIAM. Songs of Innocence and Experience, new edition, printed from the text of the Original Volumes published in 1789 and 1794, with Miscellaneous Poems, now first printed from the Author's MSS. 1866, 12mo. 4s.

— Poetical Sketches. Now first reprinted from the Original Edition of 1783. With a short Critical Preface. 1868, 12mo. 3s. 6d.

"A charming reprint of a most musical and dainty little book of songs. Turn where we will, throughout its hundred pages, we are sure to light on something that sparkles up into the light, as the sound of rippling water, the songs of birds, amid the breath of spring."—The Standard.

BLEW, W. Privy Council Infallibility. The Mere Mistake in the Knightsbridge Judgment, excused by Mr. Fremantle, explained by Dr. Cardwell, exposed by Wm. Blew. 1877, 8vo. sewed, 1s.

BLOXAM, M. H. Glimpse at the Monumental Architecture and Sculpture of Great Britain, from the Earliest Period to the Eighteenth Century. 1834, crown 8vo. 55 cuts, 12s.

BOCCACCIO, G. Il Decamerone, con un Discorso Critico da Ugo Foscolo. 1825, 3 vols. crown 8vo. (pub. 1l. 11s. 6d.) 10s. 6d.

BURTON, F. B. Distant Glimpses, or Astronomical Sketches. 1837, crown 8vo. 2s. 6d.

ALCOEN, CALICUT. Facsimile of a Dutch Narrative of the Second Voyage of Vasco da Gama to Calicut. Printed at Antwerp, circa 1504. With Introduction and Translation. By J. PH. BERJEAU. 1874, small 4to. 5s.

This book, unnoticed by both biographers and bibliographers, is in the British Museum. Although the name of the great navigator to India is not mentioned in it, the dates, events, and places recorded perfectly agree with the second voyage of Vasco de Gama round the Cape of Good Hope. This valuable narrative supplies a number of interesting details of the voyage which will be looked for in vain in Galvao, Ramusio, Castanheda, Faria, Barros, &c.

CASWALL, E., of the Oratory, Birmingham. Poems and Hymns, original and translated. Comprising Hymns for the Week, the Christian Seasons, and Saints' Days, translated from the Breviary, the Missal, and other sources: Original Meditative Pieces and Hymns: also upwards of seventy Poems and Odes. 1873, 12mo. 5s.

From the above Poems and Hymns, originally published under the titles, Lyra Catholica, Masque of Angels, and in other works, now for the first time collected in one volume, it is not too much to say that the compilers of all the best known Hymn books during the last twenty years have borrowed, and in some cases very largely.

CASWALL, E. Tale of Tintern; a May Pageant. Second Edition. 1873, square 16mo. 2s.

CASWALL, M. E. Old Man's Review of his Past Life (a Fragment). 1861, crown 8vo. sewed, 6d.

"We cordially recommend this little daintily-printed volume to those who care to con in a concentrated form those wise saws which, in connection with Squire Sancho, the shield-bearer of the immortal Don, have made him and

- his master immortal. The translations are adequate and satisfactory, the work has evidently been a labour of love," &c., &c.—The Athenæum.
- CHALKLEN, C. W. Semiramis; an Historical Morality, and other Poems. 1847, 2 vols. fcap. 8vo. (pub. 12s.) 6s. 6d.
- CHALLENGER LIFE BOAT, Cruise of, and Voyage from Liverpool to London in 1852. 1853, 12mo. 3s.

- CHAUCER, G. Works, viz., Canterbury Tales, by TYRWHITT, with Glossary, 5 vols. portrait, and Canterbury Pilgrimage by Stothard. Romaunt of the Rose, Troilus and Creseide and Minor Poems. 1846, 3 vols. together 8 vols. crown 8vo. 5l. 10s.
- Another Set, beautifully bound calf, extra, gilt leaves, by Bedford, 10l. 10s.
- Cleomades, Conte traduit en vers Français modernes du vieux langage D'Adenes le Roy, contemporain de Chaucer. Par le CHEV. DE CHATELAIN. 1859, fcap. 8vo. 3s. 6d. Deuxième Edition. 1869, 12mo. frontispiece, 3s. 6d.
- It will be remembered that Chaucer's "Squyeres Tale" was left by the author unfinished, and that it is literally a story without an end ; this little volume supplies materials to make up the deficiency, as it is with little question the source from whence Chaucer obtained the plot of his story.

CHAUCER, G. La Fleur et la Feuille ; poëme avec le Texte Anglais en Regard, traduit en vers Français par le CHEVALIER DE CHATELAIN. 1857, 12mo. cloth, gilt leaves, 2s.

"A very clever translation of Chaucer's 'Floure and the Leafe.'"—English Journal of Education.

- Another copy, large paper, only 20 copies printed, uncut, 15s.

CONSTABLE, HENRY. Another copy, bound in calf extra, panned sides and gilt leaves, by Bedford, 16s.

Malone considered that Shakespeare was probably indebted to Constable's "Shepherd's Song of Venus and Adonis," and there is some question how far Shakespeare's is an improvement on it. Constable was of an ancient Roman Catholic Yorkshire family: he was some time resident in Scotland, and appears to have been on intimate terms with King James I. He has been mentioned in laudatory terms by Ben Jonson and Sir John Harington.

CRUIKSHANK.—FRANKUM, R. The Bee and the Wasp, a Fable in Verse. 1860, square 12mo. with etchings by Geo. Cruikshank, executed in early life, and in his best manner, 5s.

— Another copy, square 12mo. with the plates on India paper, only 50 copies so printed, 7s. 6d.

These etchings are among some of the most spirited of Cruikshank's works; in the third, the attitude and expression given to the Wasp, who is sneering at the Bee, after having beguiled him into the honey-pot, is as fiendish as it is possible to conceive, though the personality of the Wasp is fully preserved.

- EWALD, ALEX. CHAS. The Public Records—A Brief Handbook to the National Archives. By ALEX. CHAS. EWALD, one of the Senior Clerks of Her Majesty's Public Records. 1873, 8vo. 9s.

This book is an Alphabetical Index of the Principal Matters contained in the Public Records, with a reference directing the student of history under what heading they may be found, and a Glossary of Words to be found in the Public Records, with a Prefatory Essay on the most remarkable of these Records.

"For the students of the Public Records and the National Archives Mr. Ewald's New Hand-Book will be found extremely useful . . ."—Westminster Review.

"It is the especial merit of Mr. Ewald that he has given an account of Chronicles and Calendars, and directed the inquirer where he will most readily find the object of his research . . . made the way easy to a knowledge of what the great collection contains and to the best means of giving that knowledge applications."—Athenæum.

FISH, SIMON. A Supplicacyon for the Beggars, reprinted from the Original Edition of 1524. Edited by W. MASKELL. 1845, 8s. 6d.

Only a small number of copies printed. This virulent satire against the clergy of the reign of Henry VIII. was so rigorously suppressed, that the copy from which this was printed is supposed to be unique. Bp. Burnet informs us that it "took mightily." Simon Fish is named as author by Foxe, who has been followed by many others; but that such was the case is by no means certain. The tract was answered by Sir T. More, in his "Supplicacyon of Soulys."

- FRANKUM, R. The Bee and the Wasp, a Fable in Verse. 1860, square 12mo. with etchings by George Cruikshank, executed in early life and in his best manner, 5s.
- Another copy, square 12mo. with the plates on India paper, only fifty copies so printed, 7s. 6d.
- These etchings are among some of the most spirited of Cruikshank's works; in the third, the attitude and expression given to the Wasp, who is sneering at the Bee, after having beguiled him into the honey-pot, is as fiendish as it is possible to conceive, though the personality of the Wasp is fully preserved.

FRERE, J. H. The Works in Prose and Verse of the Right Honourable John Hookham Frere. Now first collected with a Memoir by W. E. and Sir BARTLE FRERE. First edition. 1872, 2 vols. 8vo. finely printed, with numerous head and tail-pieces and initial letters, with two portraits engraved by C. H. Jeens; one from a painting by Hoppner, the other from a marble bust by Macdonald, 1l. 18s.

— LARGE PAPER, 2 vols. 4to. only 25 copies printed on hand-made paper, 5l. 5s.

— SECOND EDITION WITH ADDITIONS. 1874, 3 vols. crown 8vo. with 2 portraits engraved by C. H. Jeens, 24s.

— LARGE PAPER, 3 vols. 8vo. 2l. 2s.

Comprising:—Translations of "The Acharnians," "The Knights," "The Birds," "The Frogs," and a portion of "The Peace," from the Greek of Aristophanes. The last named has never before been printed; the others were only circulated among the friends of the author.—Translation and Paraphrase of the Fragments of Theognis, in which the personal history of the Poet is traced.—Translations from the "Poema del Cid."—Seven of the Psalms in blank verse.—Also translations from Homer, Euripides, Catullus, Lope de Vega, Gonzalo de Berceo, Monte-mayor, La Fontaine, Goethe, &c.—Among the original pieces will be found his Prospectus and Specimen of an intended National Work by William and Robert Whistlecraft, relating to King Arthur and the Knights of the Round Table.—Contributions to the "Anti-Jacobin," viz., The Friends of Freedom, The Needy Knife-Grinder, The Progress of Man, The Loves of the Triangles, The Rovers.—"Athelstan's Victory:" an Imitation of an Anglo-Saxon Poem, in old language.—Contributions to "The Microcosm."—Epitaphs on Canning and Nelson, and upwards of Thirty Miscellaneous Pieces never before printed.

Samuel Taylor Coleridge said that should the translation of Aristophanes contained in these volumes ever obtain publicity, "It would form an important epoch in English literature, and open out sources of metrical and rhythmical wealth in the very heart of our language, of which few, if any, among us are aware."

— David's Hainous Sinne, Heartie Repentance, Heavie Punishment. 1869, crown 8vo. 7s. 6d.

A reprint of this rare and only poetical volume published by that "facetious" old divine, the eloquent author of "Good Thoughts in Bad Times." The original is scarcely ever to be met with; this reprint is a facsimile verbatim et literatim, and is on hand-made paper. Only 100 copies have been printed, of which a few only remain unsold.

GUILEVILLE, GUILLAUME DE. The Ancient Poem entitled "Le Pèlerinage de L'Homme," by GUILLAUME DE GUILEVILLE (1330), compared with "The Pilgrim's Progress" of JOHN BUNYAN. With Illustrations, and an Appendix containing the English Version, by JOHN LYDGATE. 1858, crown 4to. with numerous illustrations, 15s.

"A volume full of deep interest to the admirers of John Bunyan, and of no small value in illustrating the history of religious allegories."—Notes and Queries.

— A Modern Prose Translation of the Ancient Poem of G. de Guileville, entitled the Pylgrymage of Man, with Appendix. 1859, crown 4to. twenty-six illustrations, 5s.

— The Booke of the Pilgrimage of the Sowle, translated from the French, printed by Caxton, 1483, with illustrations taken from a MS. copy in the British Museum. Edited by K. I. CUST. 1859, crown 4to. coloured plates, 15s.

This translation of the "Pylgrimage of the Sowle" was made from the French, with additions, in the year 1413. The translator, or at least the author of the "additions" (which consist of poetry in seven-line stanzas), was in all probability Lydgate. The coloured plates are copied from a MS. in the British Museum, and those in black are from the prose French edition, by Verard, Paris, 1499.

HOLBEIN'S ILLUSTRATIONS OF THE BIBLE, being facsimiles of the celebrated "Icones Historiarum Veteris Testamenti." 1830, crown 8vo. with 90 woodcuts beautifully engraved, 18s.

Dr. Dibdin has given five specimens of the woodcuts, and a copious account of this work, in his "Bibliographical Decameron." He observes "The pencil of Holbein throws a charm and an interest about this volume which I have rarely felt in any other similar production."

HOLBEIN, H. Dance of Death, exhibited in 56 woodcuts, after the designs of Macaber, Holbein, &c., with a dissertation by F. DOUCE. 1833, 8vo. half morocco, uncut, 1l. 4s.

"I well remember the year 1627, when Paul Rubens came to Utrecht to visit Honthorst, being escorted, both coming from and returning to Amsterdam, by several artists; as we were in the boat, the conversation fell upon Holbein's book of cuts, representing the Dance of Death; Rubens gave them the highest encomiums, advising me, who was then a young man, to set the highest value upon them; informing me, at the same time, that he in his youth had copied them."

LAMB, CHARLES AND MARY. Poetry for Children.

Edited and Prefaced by R. H. SHEPHERD. 1872, 12mo. 106 pp. with woodcut initials, head, and tail-pieces, a pretty volume, 3s. 6d.

"These delightful poems for children, in spite of their extraordinary merit, and marked superiority to other productions of a similar class, seem altogether to have escaped the notices of modern readers, and even of those lovers of Lamb's genius who have during late years rescued from oblivion all the waifs and strays of which the authorship is traceable to him."

The "Poetry for Children" ranks infinitely higher, both in poetical merit and intellectual calibre, than the similar writings of Watts and of the Taylors of Ongar, which have obtained so world-wide a popularity.

The representative hymns included in this volume range from the Second Century to the Nineteenth. In each case the original and a translation are given, and where the hymn was originally in English, a Latin rendering is given. A few are Greek and English ;

all the others have the Latin and English side by side—
Among the authors may be enumerated Clement of Alexandria, Hilary, Ambrose, Augustine, Gregory of Nazianzus, Anselm, Thomas A. Kempis, Xavier, Watts, Toplady, Cowper, Heber, Keble, Newman, Bonar, and many others.

"This curious collection of 'Pleasant Stories,' composed a century before the invention of printing, has already been translated into French and German, and was well worth putting into an English dress. . . . In his brief account of Don Juan Manuel, Dr. James York has told the readers of the 'Fifty Pleasant Stories' as much, perhaps, as they will require to know of them. . . . The notes explanatory or illustrative of the stories are, as notes should be, brief, instructive, and to the point."—The Saturday Review.

PRAYER. The Six Books of Common Prayer, viz.:—1. The First Book of Edward VI. 1549. II. The Second Book of Edward VI. 1552. III. The First Book of Q. Elizabeth, 1559. IV. King James' Book, as settled at Hampton Court, 1604. V. The Scotch Book of Charles I., 1637. VI. K. Charles the Second's Book, as settled at the Hampton Conference, 1662. 6 vols. folio, parchment, gilt (pub. 18l. 18s.) 14l. 14s.

This collection of the Books of Common Prayer is uniformly reprinted in black letter, like the original editions. Their importance and value are well known; but it is remarkable that in no public, or private, or collegiate library can the whole of these books be found together. A limited number only were printed.

The book of 1662 was carefully collated with the Sealed Book in the Tower of London.

"We need not recommend, then, we are sure, this magnificent set of books to everyone who has the power of procuring them; as mere specimens of typography they are worthy of all praise, and a credit to our own times. These six volumes are to be had at a less sum than half of what, even though it was offered them, one of the two books of King Edward or the Elizabeth would cost them. The only perfect copy of the latter, printed in 1559, which we remember to have occurred at a sale, produced one hundred guineas; and this was not an edition of the highest authority, like either of the folios, but a small 12mo. In the same collection (of the Duke of Sussex) were two imperfect copies of the 1549 and the 1552; and these sold each for more than thirty guineas."—English Churchman, No. 166.

- THE BOOK OF COMMON, and Administration of the Sacraments and other Rites and Ceremonies of the Church according to the Use of the Church of England, together with the Psalter or Psalms of David, pointed as they are to be sung or said in the Churches, and the Form of making, Ordaining, and Consecrating the Bishops, Priests, and Deacons. 1844, folio, beautifully printed in black letter, with initial letters, one of the best specimens of the publications of the late W. Pickering, 1l. 8s.

This edition is suitable for Church use.

PRAYER, COMMON. The Book of Common Prayer of 1636, with all the MS. alterations made by Convocation in 1661 (the draft of the present version, showing at a glance in what particulars it differs from the preceding edition). From this long-lost document the copy appended to the Act of Uniformity was transcribed, from which transcription "The Sealed Book" of 1662 was printed. The book is reproduced by Major-General Sir Henry James' Photo-zincographic Process, and is an exact counterpart of the original folio volume. Only a limited number printed, 2l. 5s.

The volume possesses the highest value and interest to all those who would form a correct judgment as to the mind of the English Church in matters pertaining to doctrine and ritual.

- A SERVICE OF. A Litany and an Office of the Holy Communion. 1874, 16mo. 1s.
- BOOK OF COMMON, with ornamental borders round each page, from the designs of Hans Holbein, Albert Durer, &c., in Queen Elizabeth's Book of Christian Prayers, printed by Day, 1569. 1853, square 12mo. 1l. 8s.
- Ditto, red edges, 1l. 1s.

The above are the original editions published by W. Pickering, not the imitations recently issued.

- COMMON, BOOK OF (Merbeck's), noted. 1844, small 4to. parchment (pub. 1l. 5s.) 1l. 4s.
- BOOK OF COMMON, of the Church of England, adapted for General use in other Protestant Churches. 1852, 12mo. 3s. 6d.

This compilation was made by Henry Hunt Piper, a Unitarian minister, and upon its being represented to the late W. Pickering that its title was a misnomer, as it was radically different from, and subversive of, "The Book of Common Prayer of the Church of England," he suppressed the Book. It has been attributed, entirely without foundation, to the late Prince Consort and the Chev. Bunsen. Another edition, with further alterations, was prepared subsequently by the author, and published by one of the Unitarian booksellers.

- ROY, WILLIAM.

“Rede me and be nott wrothe,
For I say no thyng but trothe.”

Printed abroad about 1526. Small 8vo. black letter.

This is a volume of the highest degree of interest, whether we consider its curiosity or its historical and poetical value. The author was Tindal's assistant in the translation of the New Testament, and is frequently mentioned by Sir Thomas More as “Friar Roy.” How far he was a fit instrument for such employment the reader of this volume may form some opinion; certainly the foulness and virulence of the language is superlative.

It is a most violent satire on Cardinal Wolsey under the form of a dialogue, in verse, between two priests' servants, named Watkyn and Jeffray.

Only 100 copies reprinted, on hand-made paper, by the late

William Pickering. This edition is a facsimile of the original, a copy of which is worth 20l. Price 12s.

RUGBY MAGAZINE, THE, from July, 1835, to July, 1837.
2 vols. crown 8vo. cloth, 1l.

ALLUSTII, C. CRISPI. Opera Quæ Exstant accedunt Orationes et Epistolæ ex Historiarum Libris Superstites. 1864, 4to. very sumptuously printed on beautiful hand-made paper for Dr. Goodford, intended only for Presents, half Roxburghe morocco, uncut, 7s. 6d.

This book is admirably adapted for a school or college prize ; it is of extremely handsome appearance ; the price charged for it would not even defray the cost of the paper on which it is printed ; and it is always to be had in a great variety of bindings, and at various prices.

Uniform with the Juvenal printed by W. Pickering for a similar purpose.

SALLUST. Another copy, 4to. French gros-grained morocco, extra gilt back and gilt leaves, by Riviere, 1l. 12s.

— Specimens of Ornamental Metal Work. 4to. 50 plates.

SHAW, H. Specimens of Details of Elizabethan Architecture. 1839, 4to. 60 plates.

— Specimens of Ancient Furniture, drawn from Existing Authorities, with Descriptions by SIR S. M. MEYRICK. 1836, 4to. 74 plates, some coloured.

— The Glazier's Booke : A Booke of Sundry Draughtes, principally serving for Glasiers; and not impertinent for Plasterers and Gardeners, besides many other Professions. 1848, square 8vo. 117 plates of ancient ornamental designs for Glaziers' Work, 16s.

Almost wholly copied from a rare book by Walter Gidde, printed in 1615. It forms a most useful book of reference to all persons engaged in the production of objects to which Art can be applied. The plates not only furnish hints, but in many instances can be made to form the skeletons of new designs, requiring only to be filled in with the ornaments, or colours, suitable to the particular article or manufacture to which they are to be applied.

— Handbook of Mediæval Alphabets and Devices. 1853, imperial 8vo. 36 coloured plates.

— Specimens of Tile Pavements, drawn from Existing Authorities. 1858, royal 4to. half Roxburghe morocco, uncut. 47 coloured plates.
